CHIEF VILLASEÑOR MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT

On December 18, 2014 Roberto A. Villaseñor, Chief of the Tucson Police Department, was selected to be a member of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. At 9:00 a.m. this morning, as part of the Task Force, the Chief will meet with the President of the United States to present the initial report.

The Task Force on 21st Century Policing was conceived by the White House following the grand jury decision in Ferguson, Missouri. It includes law enforcement representatives and community leaders. The goal of the Task Force is to find ways to strengthen the relationship between police and the public, and to submit a written report to the president with its recommendations.

Chief Villaseñor will be returning from Washington D.C., Tuesday afternoon.
